

Statement of Fact

In arranging this Policy, you must have provided us with a fair presentation of the risks to be insured. This means you must have clearly disclosed all material facts which You, Your senior management and/or persons responsible for arranging the Policy knew or ought to have known. If you have not made a fair presentation, this could mean that part or all of a claim may not be paid. Please be aware that in some circumstances, if you have not made a fair presentation of the risk, we may avoid the contract and the premium may not be returned. You must also make a fair presentation to us when the policy is to be renewed.

It is vital therefore that you tell us of any inaccuracies or omissions in the answers you gave or information supposed as soon as you become aware of them. It is your responsibility to inform us immediately if any of the answers below or information supplied are incorrect, or if circumstances change during the lifetime of the policy and the answer or information become incorrect. Otherwise a claim may only be partially paid, declined or your cover may become void.
